2011 Grand Prix Horse of the Year

Incorporating the Sandale Saddlery Leading Young Rider Award

Series Wrap Up for 2011

Wow what a year, Grand Prix jumping is certainly alive and well in Queensland. We are very lucky to have such wonderful classes to include in our series. I would like to first thank our 2011 Series Sponsors, Stubben Australia and Sandale Saddlery. Steph Langbecker your generosity is second to none and your support of Showjumping in Queensland is amazing. Thank you.

I would also like to thank all the show organizers, sponsors and volunteers for making everything come together at these shows which make our State out shine the rest in quality and prize money. The 2011 Series has been very hotly contested all season, with a mix of experienced Grand Prix horses to new up and coming stars. Only 11 points separated our Top 6 horses.. It was also great to see some young riders stepping up into the bigger classes.

I am very pleased to announce our Stubben Australia Grand Prix Horse of the Year is Cheezy Z. This imported grey mare owned by the Cullen Family and ridden by Brett Warren is what the series is all about. She won the State and Country Titles and was very competitive in the eight rounds she competed thus making her the most competitive and consistent horse in our 2011 Series finishing with 42 points. In second on 39 points was the experienced Hue & Cry ridden by Merrick Ubank, they also competed in eight rounds winning round three and also being competitive all season. In third place on 38 points was the imported mare Florina ridden by Clem Smith having her first season at Grand Prix Level, she competed in only five rounds winning two. Our leading Young Rider of the Series was Olivia Hamood who this season saw her not only competing in her first World Cup but being very competitive. Congratulations to all our horses, riders and owners.

We had an Award Ceremony at our final round the Caboolture World Cup where Cheezy Z was awarded with her prize of a new Stubben Zaria Deluxe Jumping Saddler valued at $3760.00 Olivia Hamood was awarded with her $500 Voucher from Sandale Saddlery. Once again thank you to Stubben Australia and Sandale Saddlery. Go to www.sandalesaddlery.com.au to see the Stubben range and Saddlery Specials.
